CRIMINAL NO. SAG-22-105

ORDER

Upon consideration of the Second Consent Motion for Order Regarding Speedy Trial Status, it is this ____ day of October, 2022, by this Court:

FOUND; pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7), the ends of justice will be served by excluding the time between October 5, 2022, and January 13, 2023, for purposes of calculating the time by which the defendant must be tried, and outweighs the best interest of the public in a speedy trial, in that:

1. This a complex case that includes potential litigation under the Classified Information Procedures Act, 18 U.S.C. App. III, and complicated measures relating to the production of classified information during the discovery process;
3. The failure to grant this request in this proceeding could likely to result in a miscarriage of justice; and
4. The failure to set trial beyond the speedy trial date in this proceeding would deny counsel for the defendant and for the government the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence and the complexity of the case; and it is therefore

ORDERED, that the Second Consent Motion for Order Regarding Speedy Trial Status shall be, and the same hereby is, GRANTED; and it is further

ORDERED, that pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3161(h)(7)(A), the period of time between October 5, 2022, and January 13, 2023, shall be, and the same hereby is, EXCLUDED from the computation of time in which the defendant must be tried on the Indictment; and it is further ORDERED, that the government shall submit a status report to the Court on or before January 13, 2023.
